Course Information

For this language training it is necessary that you have a good command of the Korean language. This course focuses on improving your speaking and communication skills in Korean.

During the lessons you will interactively work on increasing your vocabulary and expressive skills with diverse topics, you will learn the nuance of language use in different situations (including discussing, presenting) and you will improve your pronunciation and intonation in Korean where necessary.

As topics we cover a variety of themes related to yourself and your daily life, for example, family / friends / habits / hobbies / food / health / education / career and work / holidays, etc.

If you successfully complete this course, you will receive a certificate.

Teaching materials

We offer lesson materials expertly crafted by our teachers.

Assessment

Assessment contents and methods will be presented based on the topics covered during lessons.
